

As I Fall

I have a dream to travel the world
As I fall asleep
When my mind wanders
And I cannot fall asleep
Because there is so much to do and see
And how can one person possibly do it all?
I must try. I must try.
But sleep tugs at my eyes
And the creative mind cries
Be let free again
To learn every language
From Love to French to Japanese
To wander and to dream
