

Creativity

My creative juices are flowing!
They yearn, they scream, to be set free
So let me tell you all there is to know about little old me.
My name is Wendy
And I like creativity.

What is "creativity," you might ask?
Ah yes, I shall tell you all about it.
Creativity is about breaking the rules, letting everything go, not confining yourself to the stupid ideas that you must follow this and that structure.
In fact

STRUCTURE

is not creative!

at all.

Why

must they tell me

How to live my life "correctly?"

Why must my

ESSAYS be th e SAME as ever yONE else's?

What HAS TH

E WORLD co

me to

Where I can no longer be

Creative?
