

Does It Matter?

Flying, flying, falling
Only seconds 'til time's gone
A flash of future calling
For the light that's far along

Your path will only guide you
If your head chose wisely enough
Your head will only lead you
If your path is far too rough

Be it heart or heaven
Be it thought or fate
Your time on Earth is stalling
Flying, flying, falling
